S. E. Gross, S. E. Gross.
The world's greatest real estate dealer: 30,000 lots sold; 7,000 houses built and sold; 16 thriving cities located in the past 10 years.

Young man invest your earnings in Chicago lots, for Chicago is bound to become the largest city in the world. The giant has burst his bonds, and is spreading in all directions. The suburb of to-day is the city itself to-morrow. You may say, "I can't, for I have only $35 or $50.00." That is enough. S. E. Gross, a man who in the last 10 years has built up in Chicago the greatest real estate business in the world: S. E. Gross, who owns 16 subdivisions, makes you this generous offer: lots that will double in value inside of a year; one-tenth cash, balance small monthly payments, long time. These terms place Chicago lots the most desirable investment known to day within the reach of anyone. Are you going to be blind to your own interests, and let the opportunity slip by? I think not. Every mechanic, every laborer, merchant and business man should own a title to a portion of God's green earth that he might call his own. There is no better or safer investment than in S. E. Gross' subdivisions. Call and see his salesman, J. H. Gross, who is stopping at the St. Nicholas hotel, where he will take pleasure to show you plats and maps of S. E. Gross' 16 subdivisions. Don't miss the opportunity of a lifetime to make money. You may never again have the same opportunity offered you. The sooner you buy the more you will make. Lots going up all the time. Study the subject and you will be convinced that it will pay you to own some of S. E. Gross' lots. Call and investigate.

THE REVIEW POSTOFFICE.
Grass Green Streets.

EDITOR REVIEW.—Farmers may be finding the weather too dry for the successful growth of grass in the country but such is not the case in Decatur. Grass and weeds grow luxuriantly along some of the streets of Decatur and the masterly inactive street commissioner allows them to grow. Along Prairie avenue grass and weeds grow at their own "sweet will." It is a shame that our streets should be neglected so; it is a pity that Decatur cannot find a man capable of discharging his duty as a street commissioner: it is too bad that Decatur must suffer through her inefficient officers, yet that is what she is doing. Strangers in the city form and express unfavorable opinions when they see weeds and grass growing along some of the principal streets, and there is no reason why the city should be compelled to suffer much longer because of the sins of omission committed by men paid for doing their work.

It is true Alexander does not live on Prairie Avenue, and it is true also that he has been charged with discriminating, but the residents of Prairie Avenue help to pay him, and they are entitled to and should get equal service from their servant, or be allowed to fill the place so nearly vacant with some one capable and willing to do his duty.

A. MERCHANT.
EDITOR REVIEW.—After you get through obtaining people's choice of names for the new park, will you please have them suggest some appropriate name to be given the street at Swearingen's corner? There is something that will tax their ingenuity and confound their souls.

AN OBSERVER.
EDITOR REVIEW.—I have 13 1/2 yards of West Main street for which I am taxed $153.00 for street paving. The contracted price was $1.38 per square yard. I understand that the paving is to be 11 yards wide or 5 1/2 yards for each person on either side of the street. Now 5 1/2 x $1.38 = $7.59 for a running yard; for 13 1/2 yards it is 18 1/2 x $7.59 = $139.15. Can you tell me in your postoffice why this difference of $13.81 comes about.

WEST MAIN STREET KICKER.

Decatur Ahead.
The Illinois Central strike has paralyzed the fruit business of the northwest. Chicago is complaining bitterly of the lack of fruit, and all along the line from that city to New Orleans, car loads of bananas are rotting on side tracks, but George W. Linnhart & Co. have not been disappointed. Thirty two cars of Fourth of July Port Edmon bananas are on track in Decatur, having arrived via. Wabash 6-day. Nobody need suffer for lack of the delicious fruit here. They are abundant and of excellent quality. Yours truly,

TWO PERSONS KILLED

Two of the victims were women.

The Disaster Occurs on the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Road at Joliet and Was Caused by the Forward Coach Jumping the Rails and Pulling the Four Following Coaches with It—Horrible Accident in Kansas.

JOLIET, Ill., June 28.—The 8 o'clock Chicago bound passenger train on the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific railroad was wrecked here Saturday morning and two people were killed. The bodies of two ladies were so horribly mangled that identification was at first impossible. Judges Wenz and Stipp were in the wreck, the former having a finger broken. Several other passengers were badly shaken up. The forward coach jumped the track and carried the four coaches following with it. The forward coach turned completely over and was smashed to pieces. One of the ladies, Ivel, in Joliet and the other in Denver. About fifteen other passengers were injured, the following seriously: Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Wiley, of Morris, Ill.; the former badly injured in the back and the latter internally. Mr. and Mrs. Perry, of Morris, are it is believed, fatally injured.

Aunt Stevenson, of Morris, Ill., was one of the women killed. The name of the other was Mrs. Pratt, of Joliet.

Wreck on the Fort Wayne Road.

MANSFIELD, O., June 28.—There was a disastrous head-on collision on the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago railroad about 11 o'clock Friday night, at the west end of Lucas stung. The third section of freight train No. 28, east bound, had orders to take siding for freight train No. 91. No. 91 was standing still waiting for No. 28, which thundered by the switch and collided with such force as to demolish both engines and fifteen or eighteen cars of merchandise. The wreckage took fire from the engines and a fire was kindled. The loss will probably reach $250,000. The trainmen escaped with slight injuries. Passenger trains were sent around the wreck via the Erie road.

Probably Fatal Railway Accident.

CANON, O., June 28.—The engine and two cars of stock of train No. 36, east-bound, on the Fort Wayne railway, jumped the track one mile west of this city Friday and rolled down a twenty-foot embankment. Engineer Hatchinson was slightly injured. Conductor Whitting had a leg and arm broken and sustained probably fatal internal injuries.

HOPE DEFERRED.

The Rescuers at Dunbar Again Meet with Disappointment.

DUNBAR, Pa., June 28.—The flames which have been burning in Farm Hill nine hours since the mouth of the pit at 820 o'clock Friday night and leaped thirty feet in the air. All efforts to extinguish the flames have proven fruitless. A hurried consultation followed between the inspectors and District Master Workman Waterhouse as to the advisability of abandoning the search for the imprisoned men. It was the belief that it was absolutely dangerous to proceed further, but the inspectors decided to finish the work themselves. A hole has been drilled into the Hill Farm and at 11 o'clock the inspectors started on their perilous search.

THE OLD WHEELBARROW MAN.

He Finishes His Trip from McConnellsville, O., to Baltimore.

BALTIMORE, June 28.—Old Harrison Warner, who left McConnellsville, O., April 25 to tramp to Baltimore, his native city, pushing a wheelbarrow all the way, arrived Thursday at Elliott City, fifteen miles west of here, in the best of health and spirits.

It's been a little warm pushing the barrow the last few days," said he, "but I'm in good condition considering that I'm nearly 90 years old."

Afraid of Jersey "Skeeters."

Warner arrived in Baltimore Friday, completing the 507 miles from McConnellsville. In this city he will visit his son, Mrs. Sand, who is 102 years old. He intended wheeling his barrow to Washington City next week to pay his respects to the president, but when told that the president would probably be at Cape May the old man said: "Then I'll wait till he comes back, for I wouldn't take a tramp through Jersey in the 'skeeter season.'"

Report on the Naval Academy.

WASHINGTON CITY, June 28.—The annual report of the board of visitors to the naval academy commends the high discipline of the academy, recommends that the age of admission be fixed from 15 to 18 years instead of from 15 to 20 years and in conclusion says that the course of study will compare favorably with that of the best educational institutions of the country and supplies an admirable equipment to its graduates for honorable service in any capacity to which they may be called.

Will Go to St. Louis in 1893.

PITTSBURG, Pa., June 28.—Before the adjournment of the International Sunday School convention Friday it was resolved that the second world's and seventh triennial international Sunday school conventions be held together in St. Louis in 1893, the time to be set later by the executive committee. A collection was then taken up for the benefit of the families of the imprisoned Dunbar miners and $380 was raised in a few moments.

Yale Wins the Race.

NEW LONDON, Conn., June 28.—The fifteenth annual four miles, straightaway, eight-oared shell race between the Yale and Harvard university crews was rowed over the Thames river course from Gale's Ferry to Winthrop Point, Yale winning by three and one-half lengths in 21:29. Harvard's time, 21:30. This is Yale's fifth successive victory and the record of four-mile races now stand: Yale won, nine; Harvard, six.

American Bishops in Nova Scotia.

HALIFAX, N. S., June 28.—Bishop Dudley, of Kentucky; Walker, of North Dakota; Perry, of Iowa; Kindon, of Fredericton, and Courtney, of this diocese, took part in the opening services of the Anglican synod of Nova Scotia here Friday in St. Luke's cathedral. Bishop Courtney administered the communion and the bishop of Kentucky preached the sermon.

No English Capital There.

NEW YORK, June 28.—The members of the three firms that practically control the New York plate glass market laugh at the published report of the formation of a plate glass syndicate controlled by English capital. They regard it as highly improbable.

ALMOST A RIOT.

Trouble Caused Over Dr. Arthur Webb, at 201 Clark street, Saturday forenoon. During the night or early in the morning six detectives of the Mooney & Boland agency had forcibly taken possession of the office and thrown all of the ticket man's property into the street. The cause of the trouble is a controversy over a lease between Mr. Webb and Mr. Hyman, a pawnbroker. The former held on under an old lease, while the latter sought possession under a new one. Constables armed with warrants charging riot demanded admission to the store.

Broke into the Place.

This being refused them and the door being locked they concluded to break into the place by smashing the windows. Constable Ahern led the attack, and as soon as his head appeared through the opening he was struck a violent blow on the head with a hatchet, inflicting a gaping wound. This angered the great crowd that had congregated in front of the building and a dozen citizens followed the constables. The detectives drew their revolvers and threatened to shoot, but they were afraid to pull the triggers and were finally taken into custody.

RIFLES FOR INCENDIARIES.

Strikers at East St. Louis Grow Ugly and Threaten the Torch.

ST. LOUIS, June 28.—The strike of the platform men in East St. Louis is still on and there seems to be no immediate prospect of settlement between the men and the road officials. The Mobile and Ohio men, who resumed work at the advanced wages, went out again and will remain with the strikers until all the roads agree to the advance. About 200 of the strikers, who live in East St. Louis, went across the river Friday and when they approached the freight houses they were charged by the police, driven back and forced to return to the city.

Talked Very Recklessly.

At Litchstone hall they held a secret meeting, several speeches of an incendiary character being made. One of the men declared that if they could not work in the freight houses they could burn them. All of the freight houses are carefully guarded by watchmen, and there is a large police force on duty. In addition to this, should any riotous proceedings occur, a large posse, armed with Winchester rifles will be ready to act at a moment's warning.

A NOBLE HORSE.

He Helps His Master Escape by Towing Him Across the Missouri.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., June 28.—A drunken fellow named West Carrington shot and mortally wounded Robert Oiler, a well-to-do farmer, living at Gower, a short distance from this city. The shooting was unprovoked and Carrington managed to make his escape. Early next morning he reached this city on horseback. Officers were on the lookout and attempted to arrest him, but he rode at full speed to the ferry landing to cross to the Kansas shore. As the ferry was on the opposite side and arrest seemed certain, Carrington drove his horse into the river and started for Kansas. The stream is a quarter of a mile wide at this point and the water high and the current swift. The horse sank several times with the weight of his rider, until finally Carrington slipped from the animal's back and held to its tail, landing in the willows half a mile below the starting point. Officers are now in pursuit. Oiler can not possibly recover.

WHOLLY FASCINATED WITH PLAY.

The Keepers at Monte Carlo Raking in Large Amounts of Her Gold—The Once Noted Woman Greatly Changed in Appearance—Sad Suicide of the Earl of Carnarvon—Other Foreign News Notes.

STOCKHOLM, June 28.—A remarkable piece of history has come through a private letter from Nice. It concerns our world-renowned singer, Christine Nilsson. She has been stopping in Nice for some time and her presence here has been one of the attractions of the place. But

CHRISTINE NILSSON. One thing that causes more surprise than anything yet heard is that Nilsson is a helpless worshiper at the gambling shrine. She has become fascinated with play and is drawn to the tables as if they were magnets. The most of her time is spent in that fashionable gambling hell, Monte Carlo. She plays, says the writer, "feverishly, and loses at times large sums of money."

A Greatly Changed Woman.

However great they are she has no care, but keeps at the play indifferent to everything except the rolling gold on the table. People used to say that the fair Christine's one love was gold. She exhibits the same tendency in her gambling, but is buoyed up with the hope of winning fabulous sums. The letter further says that Nilsson has undergone a remarkable change. She is showing age and begins to look emaciated. A grayish pallor now overspreads her once beautiful face. As a songstress she will never appear in public again. It is rumored that the deafness which came on about two years ago is becoming more severe.

OTHER FOREIGN GOSSIP.

The London Police.

LONDON, June 28.—The London Liberals have espoused the cause of the police in their attempt to obtain recognition of their demands, and will endeavor to have the matter discussed in parliament with a view of putting an end to the uncertain state of affairs which now exists. It is freely asserted by the police that Sir Edward Bradford has used all the influence he possesses with Home Secretary Matthews, to the end of inducing that official to make no concessions to the force, and has represented himself as being thoroughly capable of dealing with the situation in a way that will prevent any similar trouble in the future.

Suicide of a Runaway Couple.

LONDON, June 28.—Several days ago a young lady clerk named Hasselbeink, eloped from Oldham with a young woman named Larkie, to whom he had long been engaged to be married but whose parents opposed the match. The couple went to Copenhagen where they took rooms at a hotel. Their supply of money gave out and in despair of obtaining more they committed suicide.

Ceded to Germany.

LONDON, June 28.—The Berlin correspondent of The Standard says that the island of Mafia, off the Zanzibar coast, has been ceded to Germany, and that the understanding between England and Germany will be submitted within a few days for the approval of parliament and the Reichstag.

Wasn't a Success at Robbery.

LONDON, June 28.—At Atkmenitz, Prussian Silesia, a miner named Sprenger waylaid a postman and shot him dead. He then opened the letters in the postman's bag, but found nothing of value, whereupon he shot himself and fell dead by the side of his victim.

The Earl of Carnarvon Dead.

LONDON, June 28.—It is announced that the earl of Carnarvon, who has been ill for some time, is dead.

Created a Sensation.

MONTREAL, June 28.—Archbishop Laflèche, of Three Rivers, presided at the distribution of prizes at the Oblat seminary and he caused a sensation when, addressing the graduates, he warned them against the revolutionary teachings of France. "The French people," he said, "are no longer worthy of the name of Christian France. They have lost all their old traditions and those are only now found in the French Canadian." His remarks were received with disapproval.

Death of Speaker Miller.

CHICAGO, June 28.—Hon. James A. Miller, speaker of the Illinois house of representatives, died at Manitou, Colo., Friday. Mr. Miller had been ill for some time, but he left Chicago in much improved health, June 19, and it was expected that he would so far recover as to be able to return home and preside over the house at the special session of the general assembly to be held next month.

Looking for the Attorney General.

UTICA, N. Y., June 28.—The committee to lay before Attorney General Miller the facts in the case of the enumeration dispute between Minneapolis and St. Paul, reached here Saturday morning en route to Clinton, to find the attorney general, who has been attending the commencement of Hamilton college. They left here at 1 p. m.

DECATUR, ILLINOIS

At the Ferriss & Lapham shoe store, 148 East Main street is the same today as it was 25 years ago. This power in years past was sufficient to build up and maintain a trade equalled by few and excelled by none in Central Illinois. How was it done? By giving people better shoes for less money than any competitor. How was this possible? By buying more advantageously and selling more goods. The same power which has been so successful in years past is more mighty today than in the past years. Our watchword is quantity. We are after the volume of the business, not the size of each profit. We have perfect faith that if we sell goods enough, the gross profit will be satisfactory, even though the gain on each article sold be ever so small. Come and see what a small margin of profit we are satisfied with on every article in our stock.

DIED FROM OVERHEATING.

Fritz Young After an Illness of One Day
Passed Away

Fritz Young is the first victim of the heated term that has been threatening the lives of so many of our hardworking and industrious citizens. He was employed at Imboden's slaughter house. Friday night he became overheated, but not entirely prostrated, and had to go to his home. He lived with sister, Mrs. John Keck, at the corner of Wood and Church streets. All day yesterday he appeared to be very well, but weak and very tired, though not sick. He got up to his breakfast and talked with the family cheerfully during the day.
About 9:30 last night he retired for the night. His watch was put within reach near the bedside and medicine was fixed for him to take at regular intervals during the night. He seemed to be as well as during the day, when suddenly he began gasping for breath. Within a few minutes, not more than 15, he had died. The physician who attended him said death was caused by overheating.

Fritz Young was a little over 29 years old. He leaves a mother and 10 brothers and sisters, among whom were Emil, Will, and Carl Young, and Mrs. John Keck. His mother is quite old, and has been seriously sick for some time. So low was she last night that it was feared to inform her of the death of Fritz.

He was a most estimable young man, industrious, of good character, and upright in all his dealings. He was a member of the Turner's society. He has many friends who join with his relatives in mourning his sudden death. The sympathy of the community is with the relatives in this sad hour.

The funeral will be held Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock, from the residence of John Keck, at the corner of Wood and Church streets.

The Ice Supply

So far all the ice used in Decatur has been furnished by the ice factory. Since the hot spell began, 10 days ago, the demand has so increased that it is greatly in excess of the capacity of the factory, which is 20 tons a day. Since the hot spell, the machinery has been speeded up till 24 tons can be turned out daily. No time is lost. The machinery is never stopped except for some adjustment. It has now been running nearly two weeks without shutting off steam. Ice wagons are waiting at the factory all the time to get ice. Yesterday afternoon three wagons stood from half-past 3 till after dark waiting for loads. The ice is furnished to the wagons in the order of their arrival, or rather, first come first served. While more ice could have been sold, there has so far been no serious want, so it is not feared that the supply will run short. Even if it did, a car load can be gotten here from Moline or Pekin in 24 hours, though that would cost more than does Decatur ice. The neighboring towns would like to get their ice here, but none is shipped out of town now.

North-east Decatur

The North-east Decatur Gaudclub will hold an all day meeting on North Clayton street this 4th. A full attendance of the members will be on hand, and the invitation is extended to all who love the sport to come and have a good time.

Gus Khuner is spending a few days at home while canvassing the town for the Pearlina company.

Charles Clark and Stephen Dillinger, two young gentlemen, have returned from their trip to Jacksonville with the Sons of Veterans. The boys report a good time, but say Decatur beats Jacksonville for pretty girls, of course.

Mrs. Pete Dempsey spent several days this week visiting from home.

Mr. Cain is building an addition to his home on North Calhoun street.

Lots of Decatur people are driving out through N. E. D. these evenings. It's all right. Come out and see how fast this part of the city is improving.

A Warning

Alderman Harwood has received a very lively pointer that may be beneficial to others who feel disposed to delay or oppose public improvement. He is chairman of the ordinance committee of the council.

His committee had referred to it three ordinances for paving, one on South Water, one on Franklin, and one for three blocks on East Eldorado street. He held back the last ordinance, for Eldorado street, and then lightning struck his house. It just gave him a gentle rap, probably as a kind of a pointer to show what might happen. The Eldorado street ordinance will be reported back to the council now.

A Mounted Carrier

To-morrow morning some of the letter carriers' routes will be changed, and one will be mounted, or rather, put on wheels. The department allows a mounted carrier to an office this size, and he will be used to lighten the work of the boys. Dave Kincaid will go on wheels, being supplied with a horse and a road cart. His territory will be Main, Church and Union streets, north of the railroad, and the north part of the First and Fifth wards. In addition to that Kincaid will make the afternoon and evening collections in the business part of the city.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

OUR NEW PARK MUST HAVE A DESIGNATION.

The Friends of "The Review" Do Some Hard Thinking and Offer Some Suggestions, Original, Appropriate and Valuable—More Next Sunday.

This is pretty hot weather for brain work, but when THE REVIEW called upon its readers to come to the rescue with a name for our new park, the heat lost its terrors. THE REVIEW has a constituency that think THE REVIEW is just about the proper article and when it prefers a request, they are all ready to do their utmost to comply with it. Therefore the responses to our invitations have been so numerous and so sensible, that we are coming to believe more firmly than ever that THE REVIEW has about the cleverest and most enthusiastic lot of subscribers that ever a paper was blessed with.

So many answers have been received that it has been found necessary to lay some of them over till next Sunday, when the contest will be continued and perhaps even longer if the interest continues. So far there has been but few duplicates. When the names are all in they will be all properly numbered in the order in which they were received and referred to the city council with the compliments of THE REVIEW. The ladies have sent most of the suggestions thus far, and we are free to say that the reputation of the sex for wit and originality has nothing to lose from the representatives in the contest. When the council selects the name the first contestant that suggested it will be entitled to the honor of naming the new park. A careful record is kept of the order in which the suggestions are received. The earlier you send in your idea for a name the better chance you will have to avoid duplication.

The suggestions are pointed below but not in the order in which they were received.

MACON COUNTY CENTRAL PARK.

EDITOR REVIEW—I suggest as a name for the park. Call it "Macon County Central Park" because it is in the center of the state. G. L. K. K. K.

MACON PARK.

EDITOR REVIEW—I was very much interested in your successful efforts to unite the country and city in the movement which has resulted in Decatur securing a beautiful new park, and in justice to the country which acted so generously in the matter, and in recognition of the fact that the grounds belong to the county, I suggest that the park be called "Macon Park." This would tend to make the people of the county, outside Decatur feel more of an interest in the park. Nathaniel Macon was a gallant hero of the revolutionary war, and at some day a statue erected in his honor would give added significance to the name, and at the same time symbolize the richness and prosperity of one of the fairest counties in the United States. H. H. R.

WEST PARK.

EDITOR REVIEW—I suggest the name "West Park," the location at the western limit of the city making it appropriate. J. G. L.

LOGAN PARK.

EDITOR REVIEW—Why not name the new park "Logan Park." I think the people of Decatur appreciate the life and services of this illustrious son of Illinois enough for that. We have named a square after Lincoln, and we ought to name Central Park after Grant, and thus we can show some respect for the memories of the great trio of heroes our state gave to the nation. By the bye the Grand Army might erect a monument to Logan's memory and locate it in the park, and have a grand dedication when they meet here next spring, and thus add interest to that occasion.

A DEMOCRAT WHO LOVES HIS COUNTRY AND HIS HEROES.

ANOTHER LOGAN PARK.

EDITOR REVIEW—If I had the naming of the new park I would call it Logan park, in honor of the greatest volunteer soldier in the country. A VETERAN.

POWERS' PARK.

EDITOR REVIEW—Powers' Park would make a euphonious name and if Orlando Powers would present to the city the twenty acres adjoining the park, I would favor naming the park in his honor. Decatur, Ill.

ARGYLE PARK.

EDITOR REVIEW—Argyle Park might not be a particularly appropriate name, but it has a distinctive sound that would easily fix the name in the mind and the name would have pleasant memories for a SCOTCHMAN.

SPRING GROVE PARK.

EDITOR REVIEW—I would suggest as an appropriate name for the city's new park, "Spring Grove Park." This name suggests itself to me from the fact of there being on the grounds, beautiful springs and fine groves. M. H. GOODRICH.

FAIRVIEW PARK.

EDITOR REVIEW—I suggest that the new park be called "Fairview Park," not because of any special fitness in the name as a whole, but because the first had leaves with us a reminder of the fact that it was once a fair ground and the second had is part of the name of the new-park REVIEW that worked so earnestly to get a park for the women and children of our city. Mrs. H. W. M.

MILLER PARK.

EDITOR REVIEW—John Miller was the name of the man who entered the ground where our new park now stands and he still lived there when I first came to Decatur 50 years ago. I should think it a graceful tribute to our old settlers to call the new park "Miller Park." N. KRONL.

CALUMET PARK—SANS SOUCI PARK.

EDITOR REVIEW—I have two names to suggest for the new park. They are "Calumet" and "Sans Souci." The first suggests itself because of the state of things attained in regard to the feelings of the country and town people. The latter because the park should be so beautiful that the people who visit it could be able to forget all their cares and troubles while there and thereby feel refreshed and better able to again resume the hard realities of life upon coming away from so enchanting a spot. Mrs. C. A. FOSTER.

CRYSTAL LAKE PARK.

EDITOR REVIEW—As we are to have a lake in the new park I would suggest the name of "Crystal Lake Park." Decatur, Ill. R. T. DAVIS.

GLADSTONE PARK.

EDITOR REVIEW—As a tribute of respect due one of the greatest and noblest men who ever lived, a man whose fame belongs alike to all countries, I would favor calling the new park Gladstone Park. The name has a cheerful ring about it as well. Decatur, Ill. Mrs. C. W. M.

DECATUR PARK.

EDITOR REVIEW—Commodore Stephen Decatur presents one of the most brilliant and romantic figures in the naval history of our country. Our city is named in his honor, and it strikes me as appropriate to provide for the erection of a suitable statue in his honor in the new park, and call it "Decatur Park." Decatur, Ill. A SAILOR'S DAUGHTER.

FOREST PARK.

EDITOR REVIEW—A pretty and certainly not inappropriate name for the new park would be "Forest Park." Mrs. I. Decatur, Ill.

KANAN PARK.

EDITOR REVIEW—No one did as much toward securing the new park for our city as did our mayor. It would be a deserved honor to call it "Kanan Park." Decatur, Ill. PUBLIC IMPROVEMENT.

PEOPLE'S PARK.

EDITOR REVIEW—I would suggest to call the new park, "People's Park" to show that it is intended for the use of the whole people, rich and poor alike. Decatur, Ill. A WORKING-MAN.

Other letters are unavoidably left over, but will appear next Sunday. The ingenuity of our people has not been exhausted, and possibly the names printed today will suggest others. All are invited to contribute. Send by letter, postal card or leave at office.

Put the Children in the Closes.

Yesterday Officers Koeppel and Baylor killed 14 dogs in Pollock town. The dogs were feigning insanity and they were acquitted of the task of living. There are more dogs in this city that need killing also, on suspicion, and the officers should keep up the good work until the last unweaned dog expires. By-the-way—ever that Officer Koeppel shot at a dog and killed a canary, bird that was in a cage on a porch about 50 yards away. Officer Baylor, they say, shot at a dog twice and failing to hit him, dropped his gun and took after the canine. The latter got tangled up in a wire fence and the officer succeeded in capturing him and choking him to death. Another shot hit a stray sheep and the dog is still alive and well. After killing the 14 dogs it is said that the officers got nervous and tired and it is almost certain that if they had shot at the count house they would have missed the county. However they did nobly, and may they do it again.

A Happy Home Coming

A large number of friends and well-wishers gave a delightful reception to Rev. H. W. Trueblood and bride, at their residence, 537 Central avenue, Friday night. There were some beautiful decorations, much happy conversation, many good wishes and excellent refreshments. Everyone present was pleased with the evening and the manner in which it was spent.

Muzzie One Writer.

In the editorial columns of The Republican last evening the Catholic picnic at Bethany last Friday, was called "a non-partisan picnic," and in the local columns it was called "a democratic picnic." One or the other of the writers on The Republican ought to be muzzled, or coaxed into eating rough on rats, and it is not at all difficult for the people to decide which one it is either.

Orange Blossoms.

Genial Justice Provost donned his most winning manners yesterday afternoon and repaired to the parlors of the St. Nicholas, where his services were needed in uniting the lives of J. W. Culbertson, of Tolono, and Miss Lizzie Scholl, of Berlin, who had decided to be married in this city. The justice soon made them happy, blessed them and bade them God speed in their new relations.

Belonged to the Army.

Bob Ferguson, while taking census statistics in the Fifth ward yesterday, was told by a woman that her husband belonged to the army. The following conversation ensued: "To what army did your husband belong?"

"The Salvation Army, sir," was the reply. Bob didn't faint, but he is pretty weak over the matter.

To the Turners.

The Turners are requested to meet at their hall at 10 o'clock this morning. By order of W. STEINBACH, Pres.

A dime will buy a single copy of the special edition or you can get six for 50 cents.

The REVIEW's special edition has made a great hit. Send in your order for a dozen copies to day.

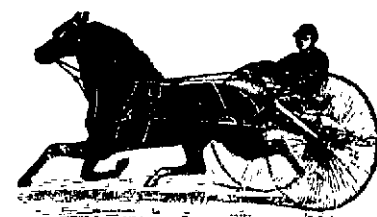

Cancer of the Nose.
In 1876 a sore appeared on my nose, and grew rapidly. As my father had cancer, and my husband died of it, I became alarmed, and consulted my physician. His treatment did no good, and the sore grew larger and worse in every way, until I had concluded that I was to die from its effects. I was persuaded to take S. S. S., and a few bottles cured me. This was after all the doctors and other medicines had failed. I have had no return of the cancer.
